

JERSEY SCHOOLBOY DEFEATS VETS IN NEWPORT TOURNEY

Throckmorton Disposes of Stevens and Clothier on Casino Courts.

JOHNSTON, WILLIAMS AND NILES VICTORS

Newport, Aug. 15.—The fashionable colony at this famous resort is suffering from disappointment to-night. This assemblage of wealth and culture that always has shown deep interest and marked enthusiasm in sporting events whether they be polo or racing, tennis or golf, failed to gather at the picturesque Casino courts to-day, where the invitation tennis tournament for the Newport cup is being played, and as a result they missed some of the finest tennis ever played in this country.

The weather was ideal for both contestants and spectators. The contestants were on hand, but the brilliant gallery that usually fringes the courts with its presence was absent. The attendance was very poor. It left vacant spaces in the stands, and still more noticeable it left wanting applause that was deserved almost continuously during the first two rounds of the tournament. Clever Playing by Schoolboy. Now they regret it and to-morrow they will be here en masse for the story of how Harold A. Throckmorton, a schoolboy from Elizabeth, N. J., forced the veteran Richard Stevens of Hoboken and William J. Clothier of Philadelphia, several times national champions, into retirement by being told and retold everywhere. The greatest winners of the racket in the country with the exception of Maurice McLaughlin, the California Comet, but none of them displayed the remarkable form as that shown by the young Jerseyite. Even the gliding, muzzling ground skimmers and backhanders of the mighty William Johnston, the holder of the national title, were not as scurrying as the flashing speed and brilliant overhead shots of the schoolboy.

Young Throckmorton simply outplayed himself. He played as never before; he played as he never expected to play against these veterans and he surprised himself as well as his opponents and those who were fortunate to see him in action.

First Downs Stevens. The youngster's first opponent was Stevens, with whom he was paired in the first round. At first the few spectators present expected a good contest, but few believed the lad would be returned the victor. They knew he was a good player, but they could not believe that he would be able to down the veteran, who was known to be in his prime.

JUGES BLUNDER IN NAMING WINNER

Give Race to Pan Maid, Which Is Beaten by Conning Tower and Hauberk.

DODGE WINS SARANAC

SARATOGA, Aug. 15.—The judges, C. H. Pettinelli and E. C. Smith, made a serious blunder in the placing of the horses at the finish of the third race to-day. They gave the race to Pan Maid, with Conning Tower second and Hauberk third. This decision was without question an error. Conning Tower and Hauberk beat out Pan Maid by a trifling margin, the last named actually finishing third.

The judges were not prompt in their decision. After the horses had finished past the post the officials remained silent for a minute and closely examined their programmes, as though they were undecided themselves about the result. It was not until a minute or so later that they came to a decision.

The finish was close only between Conning Tower and Hauberk. The question was which of the two would win. Both had passed Pan Maid twenty-five yards from the finish and had been beaten more than a neck. The crowd that was clustered around the judges stand hissed, and a few cried, "You have made a mistake!" But the judges were not disturbed.

Time of Race Is Fast. The time of the race was 1:32—the fastest made by a three-year-old during the season. The time was made by a horse carrying 125 pounds. The Saratoga Handicap was worth $2,000. This brought Dodge's winning time of 1:32. The time was made by a horse carrying 125 pounds.

The first time Al Demare beat the Giants, he remarked to some New York reporters, "Boys, I got more pleasure out of winning that game than I did out of a hundred dollars note." Since then Al has beaten the Giants some thirteen times, and he has put the quotation down to fifty cents.

Johnny Evers recently remarked: "The Braves aren't worrying about Brooklyn. The team we must beat out is the Giants." John evidently figured the National League pennant winner can snatch the flag with a percentage of .513.

Walter Johnson yesterday had the good wishes of the Washington, New York, Cleveland, Detroit, Chicago and St. Louis teams with him in his battle with Babe Ruth, while the Red Sox were the only team pulling for Babe. However, though out wined six to one, Ruth won.

A band was at the North Philadelphia station to meet the Athletics when they returned home last night. The band was on the straw hat of one of the Mack brothers, and the band was playing the national anthem.
